Course Overview

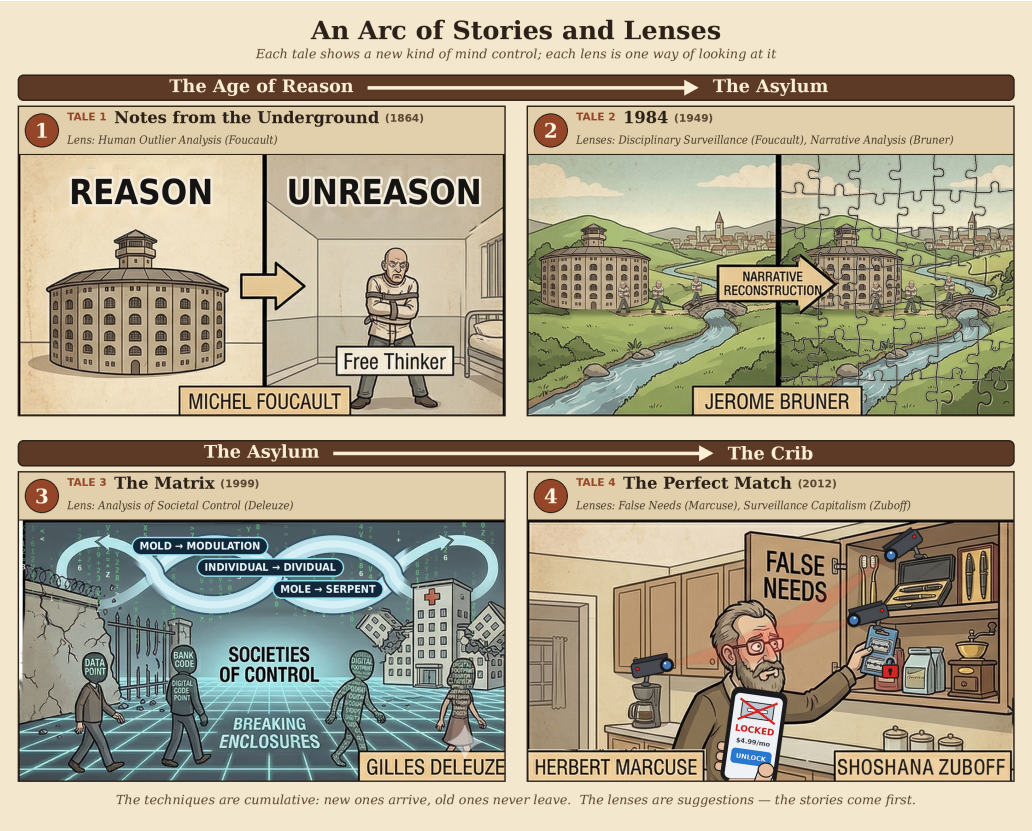

- Look at modern age stories where societies impose/offer mind control.
- Consider characters who are rebelling.
- Ask questions through various lenses.

Stories in a Dystopian Arc

- Dostoyevsky's Underground Man, isolated and being crushed by 2+2=4 reason .
- Winston from "1984" being pounded by Big Brother to truly believe 2+2=5.
- Neo from "The Matrix" perceiving that his entire world is a computer simulation, seeing the simulation of 2+2=4 in binary.
- Sai from "The Perfect Match" being nudged by the AI agent Tilly to tell him that he prefers the beautiful girl in the "2+2=4" T-shirt.

Some Lenses

- Human Outlier Analysis (Michel Foucault – Madness and Confinement)
- Disiplinary Surveillience (Michel Foucalt – Panopticism)
- Narrative Analysis (Jerome Bruner):
- Societal Control (Gilles Deluze):
  - Foucault's "enclosures" (prisons, schools, hospitals) are breaking down.
  - We are no longer "individuals" in a room; we are "dividuals"—data points, bank codes, and digital footprints that are tracked in an open, continuous loop of control.
  - It's not about being locked in a cage; it's about being part of a network where the "control" is fluid and constant.
- False Needs (Herbert Marcuse)
- Surveillance Capitalism (Soshanna Zuboff:)
