- End Times Fascism and the Fight for the Living World, by Naomi Klein and Astra Taylor, Sept 2026, Farrar, Straus and Giroux.

  > The governing ideology of the far right has become a monstrous, supremacist survivalism. Our task is to build a movement strong enough to stop them.
  > "End Times Fascism" is the ideology of the actors who strive to make the world unlivable and then seek to protect themselves from the fall-out. Whether by retreating to luxurious private islands, rocketing off to Mars, or bunkering the nation to keep their enemies at bay, these new survivalists have accumulated power, but they are far from impregnable. Klein and Taylor show via original reporting and analysis that the many internal conflicts and contradictions and nihilistic inability to envision a shared future, even for their ostensible allies, leaves these actors vulnerable to a new kind of "pro-life" politics – rooted in reverence for our shared existence, and regard for the earth we inhabit, and must protect.

  > In this blistering reckoning with our age, Naomi Klein and Astra Taylor take us deep into this man-made Armageddon complex – and show us how to resist it. Around the globe, they investigate how those who are making our world unliveable through climate chaos and job-consuming AI are preparing to protect themselves from the fallout, whether it's by repairing to luxurious private islands for the super-rich, rocketing off to Mars or bunkering nations against a dehumanized 'other'.
  > But, Klein and Taylor reveal, the new supremacist survivalists are far from impregnable. They have no vision of a shared future. All they offer are remixes of a bygone past: the nihilistic, sadistic pleasures of domination. If we're to meet this critical moment and defend what's left of democracy before it's smashed up beyond repair, we must break the doom loop, and find a new way of living together, rooted in our existence on this earth, in the here and now. A story not of end times – but of better times. This book shows us how.

  - Excerpt from email from Guardian to Scott:

    > End Times Fascism: And the Fight for the Living World, the new book I co-wrote with Astra Taylor, uncovers how the most powerful people on the planet are preparing for the end of the world, an end they themselves are frenetically accelerating. In sharp contrast, the most powerful social movements on the planet are fighting for here – for all we cherish about being alive in this animate world.

    > Our book was born in the pages of the Guardian. In April 2025, Astra and I wrote a featured essay for the Guardian – "The rise of end times fascism" – which went viral like little else I have written. People told us it was the first piece they had read that really made sense of the chaos Donald Trump was unleashing. The Guardian was a laboratory for exploring our ideas, and the response from Guardian readers convinced us that it was worth digging deeper and expanding the idea into a book – now an instant bestseller in the US, UK, Canada and the Netherlands.
